SEC to Review Exemption of Stephens Co.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — When the W. R. Stephens Investment Co., Little Rock, asked the federal Securities and Exchange Commission to exempt it from compliance with the Public Utility Holding Co. Act for one year, dated from December 15, 1954, the announced goals with reference to Stephens' newly acquired control of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., were different in important particulars from those the Stephens company now says are contemplated.

The Stephens application to the SEC in October, 1954, recited that Ark-La Gas would divest itself of producing, gathering and extraction properties by transfer to a corporation that has never been formed (from which Mississippi River Fuel Corp., would ultimately acquire them) and that the Stephens company would dispose of its Ark-La stockholdings within one year.

The conditions which Stephens set up as the basis for exemption from the Holding Company Act have not been met. The SEC has ordered a review of the exemption petition and a hearing is scheduled February 20 in Washington.

An indication of the extent to which the Ark-La picture has changed since the Stephens company, headed by W. R. Stephens—bond broker, multiple bank stock owner, utility operator and political power—acquired more than half of Ark-La's common stock with the assistance of a New York bank loan and a note endorsement by the Mississippi River Fuel Corp. (recently it was reported another endorsement had replaced MRF's) is found in the following developments.

1. Any political handicap which Ark-La shared with Arkansas Power and Light Co., because both filed rate increase applications just before the 1954 Democratic primary campaign has been lifted from the gas company—Arkansas Power and Light Co., is filling the whipping boy role without an understudy these days. (The Memphis Commercial Appeal's Little Rock correspondent commented in a February 5 article that it was a foregone conclusion the Public Service Commission would rule against AP&L in the current rate application hearing.)

2. The PSC has granted Ark-La Gas two increases since the Stephens entry into the company's management. One increase was of a general nature and the other was against industrial plants.

3. Established rate-making practices of the PSC have been abandoned insofar as Ark-La Gas is concerned; now it is permitted to earn eight per cent from industrial customers instead of the traditional six per cent. (b) its income tax depletion allowance is not added back into the net earnings but instead is treated as a "bonus" to the stockholders after net earnings are computed for rate-testing purposes. (c) it is allowed to charge into operating expenses the so-called "fair field price" of the gas produced by its own wells rather than charging only actual production cost. No other utility has been the beneficiary of so many concessions from the PSC; each of the policy changes added to the amount available for stockholders.

4. Ark-La's stock, which Stephens bought from Cities Service Co., for $12.50 per ($5 par value) share, is quoted on the stock market at $19 to $20; a 10 per cent stock dividend was voted all stockholders in December; earnings for 1955 were reported to be $1.07 per share compared with 43 cents in 1954.

5. Ark-La's stock, owned by Stephens but pledged as note security cost him $25,000,000; based on current market prices it has increased in value to $45,000,000 in little more than a year. When he bought it at $12.50 it was quoted at $11.25. Its book value is approximately $9 per share.

6. Major personnel changes have been made, with a Stephens long-time friend and associate, Joe Hardin of Grady, stepping into the general management at Little Rock to replace the veteran executive, R. W. Curran, several months before the latter was due to retire. Mr. Curran was not cut off the payroll; however, many others have lost their jobs. Economy was the objective, the company said. It also began charging customers for services formerly charged to overhead expense.

7. The transfer of product ion, gathering and extraction properties to Mississippi River Fuel Co. p., through an intermediate (but never organized) corporation will not take place; thus, one of the commitments in the Stephens application to the SEC was not kept.

8. Stephens has made no move to dispose of his stockholdings—any large scale offering of the stock probably would lead to a drop in market price. The Stephens company reiterated, when the SEC review of its status was scheduled, that it would eventually sell off its Ark-La stock.

Probers Ask More Data on Missiles

BY JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) said today a congressional subcommittee he heads "will want to hear the views of Trevor Gardner" on what should be done to spur the Defense Department's missile program.

Gardner announced yesterday he had sent to President Eisenhower his resignation as assistant Air Force secretary for research and development.

Urging "a very highly accelerated program on both" intermediate-range and intercontinental missiles, Gardner said "an honest difference of opinion" had developed between him and his Pentagon superiors.

Of the long-range missile project, aimed at developing ballistic weapons capable of spanning oceans while carrying atomic warheads, Gardner said, "A crash program is badly needed."

As the Pentagon uses the words, a "crash program" is one aimed at achieving its goal in the shortest time, with cost a secondary consideration.

Gardner said he was quitting because of differences about the scope and importance of the project. He said he told Congress last year the Air Force was "short about 200 million dollars" in the money it should have for research.

Gardner declined a direct reply when asked if he thinks Russia is ahead of this country in development of either the 5,000-mile, intercontinental rocket or the 1,500-mile missile. But he did say, "I think we need a very highly accelerated program on both these missiles."

Jackson is chairman of a Senate House Atomic Energy subcommittee on weapons which has been conducting a series of closed hearings on this nation's standing in the arms race with Russia.

Jackson remarked he considered it significant that Eisenhower said when asked about the missile program at his news conference yesterday that "in certain fields I am sure we are well ahead of the other side and in certain fields I think they are probably ahead of us."

"I believe we may be ahead of the Soviets in defensive missiles," Jackson commented, "but there is grave reason to fear Russia is ahead of us in offensive missiles."

Labor Tags 9 Lawmen to Be Opposed

By NORMAN WALKER

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Leaders of the combined AFL-CIO today were reported to have tagged nine members of the Senate for organized labor opposition in the fall elections.

The nine, all Republicans, were reported to be Senators Duff (Pa.), Capahon (Ind.), Thyne (Miss.), Kuchel (Calif.), Welker (Idaho), Goldwater (Ariz.), Millikin (Colo.), Wiley (Wis.) and Butler (Md.).

AFL-CIO leaders participating in winter meetings here also were reported to have decided to support Sen. Morse (D-Ore.), but to withhold any organized labor support in the prospective Senate race in Ohio between Gov. Frank Lausche, Democrat, and Sen. Bender (R., Ohio).

Best Survival Kit in Troubled Atomic Age Can Be Carried Around in a Small Pocket

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Curbstone comments of a pavement Plato: Have you made a do-it-yourself personal survival kit to protect you against the hydrogen bomb? Probably not.

People who live on the edge of a night in time cease to fear the falling dark. So it is with us. We have dwelt so many years now under the pall of potential atomic death that we have become accustomed to its shadow.

It had to be that way. No human being can remain frightened forever; he cannot endure a permanent panic.

So it has come to pass that for the silver light in the mortal mushroom that first towered in terror over Hiroshima. Today we have fewer nightmares over what atomic power will do to mankind. We prefer to dream what it can

Would Remove Buying Controls to Avert Slump

WASHINGTON (UP)—A congressional investigating subcommittee demanded today that the administration remove credit controls on home buying to avert a "sharp slump" in home building.

The group called for a return to the "no downpayment" on purchase of GI houses and lower down-payments on purchase of FHA-insured homes which prevailed before controls were imposed last July.

The recommendation was made by a House Banking subcommittee headed by Rep. Albert Rains (D-Ala.) in reporting on a six-month investigation.

It said applications for FFA mortgages on construction of small homes and for VA appraisals of new GI housing in November ran about 40 per cent below year-earlier levels. This decline is "ominous" and could have "serious effects on the entire economy," the subcommittee said.

The report, published today, was written last month before the administration went party-way in removing the control it had imposed as an anti-inflationary move. On Jan. 17 maturities of GI and FHA insured loans, which had been limited to 25 years since last July, were restored to 30 years.

In a parenthetical note, the subcommittee said it was "gratified that some action has been taken, although we believe it did not go far enough." It said the same reasoning should force a relaxation in down-payment controls.

Cotton Men of Four States Meet Feb. 21

N. B. Coleman, president of the Hempstead County Farm Bureau, announced today that a four-state cotton growers' meeting will be held at 10 a. m., February 21, at the City Hall in Texarkana. All farmers in the area are invited to attend, he said. Sponsors of the meeting include the Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas Farm Bureau Federations.

Mr. Coleman said the program would feature discussions on the Cotton Situation, Cotton's Competitive Position in National and World Markets, Farm Bureau's Seven-Point Cotton Program, and the Soil Bank Plan. National authorities on each of the subjects will participate in the discussions.

The County Farm Bureau president said that the Farm Bureau Seven-Point Cotton program includes the following seven points:

1. Make cotton price support level reflect average grade.
2. Study the method of calculating parity price for cotton.
3. Increase research for cotton.
4. Mandatory labeling of textile fiber products.
5. Study and correct textile import problems.
6. Further reduce production CCC surplus stocks.
7. Take action to expand exports of cotton.

Those appearing on the program will include John C. Lynn, Legislative Director, American Farm Bureau Federation, Washington, D. C.; M. K. Horne, Chief Economist, National Cotton Council, Memphis; and Harold Ohlendorf, President of the Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation.

Mr. Coleman said that more than 500 cotton farmers are expected to attend the meeting.

With the local senior and junior bands acting as hosts, on February 17 and 18 Hope will entertain about one hundred and forty junior high school bandmen from surrounding towns in this area. The occasion is the annual junior high school band clinic where representatives from all the junior bands will meet to form two well balanced units and rehearse together.

Cities and towns located in this area, known as Region IV of the Arkansas School Band and Orchestra Association, are Texarkana, DeQueen, Ashdown, Nashville, Lewisville, Shanks, Magnolia, Prescott, Gurdon, Arkadelphia, Hot Springs and Hope.

The junior musicians, all in the seventh, eighth, or ninth grades, will register at the high school band building at one o'clock Friday, February 17. Following competitive try-outs that afternoon, the students will be assembled in two eighty piece bands Friday night for warm-up rehearsals. A dance afterwards in the band hall will complete the evening's activities. On Saturday the bands will start at 8:30 a. m., playing in alternating one-hour sessions, and continue until 4 p. m. when the clinic ends.

Guest conductor for the meet is a graduate of the Hope high school band, Tommy Kinser, who now is band director at Stuttgart, Arkansas. Kinser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Kinser, reside at 820 South Main, Hope. In addition to degrees from the University of Arkansas and Indiana, Mr. Kinser has directed bands in Auburn, Louisiana, and at present, Stuttgart.

The Hope Band Auxiliary is seeking homes in which to entertain these students. Hosts will be asked to house them Friday night and give them breakfast. Mrs. A. W. Martin 414 West "G" street, is chairman of the housing committee and she will appreciate all offers of facilities.

All clinic sessions, except the Friday afternoon tryouts, will be open to the public.

Ark-La Told to Refund $1.2 Million to Public; AP&L Rate of Return Declared Adequate

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Format orders for a $1,200,000 refund of overcharges by Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. to residential and commercial customers were issued yesterday by the state Public Service Commission.

The order followed a recent ruling by Pulaski Circuit Court, which upheld the PSC's year-old decision granting a rate boost to the natural gas distribution firm.

In allowing the rate increase, the PSC cut $800,000 of the original amount sought by Arkansas Louisiana. Since the company has been collecting the full amount of its request, it now must refund the difference to customers, and reduce its rates to the PSC approved level.

A two million dollar bond put up by Arkansas Louisiana covers the refunds, which probably will be mailed to about 140,000 customers in April. Company officials have estimated the average repayment $6.40.

The lower rates are retroactive to Feb. 1. The new charges will lower from $1.20 to $1.10 the price of the first 1,000 cubic feet of gas used each month. The price for each additional 1,000 cubic feet will be cut by three cents.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Washington economist today testified that he considers a 4.59 per cent annual rate of return as sufficient to permit Arkansas Power & Light Co. "to maintain its credit and to attract investment capital."

Lawrence Knappen, who said he numbers the cities of Chicago, Milwaukee, Cincinnati and Miami among his clients as a utility consultant made the statement before the Arkansas Public Service Commission in a hearing on AP&L's application for a $5,200,000 a year permanent rate increase.

AP&L witnesses have contended that the power company needs at least a six per cent return on its investment to avoid financial distress.

Six per cent traditionally is the return considered fair by the PSC for regulated utilities.

After Knappen concluded his testimony a news reporter asked him if he and company witnesses used the same "starting point" in their conflicting testimony of the desirability of return.

He said they did.

"The 4.59 per cent I advocate is comparable to their 6 per cent," he said.

Knappen was called to the witness stand as the hearing resumed after a one-day recess.

He testified in response to questions of Little Rock City Attorney Q. D. Longstrech Jr., as counsel for Little Rock and other cities protesting the proposed rate increase.

AP&L seeks to retain $4,200,000 a year it has been collecting under a bond insuring possible refunds, and to supplement this increase with another boost of one million dollars a year.

Direct and cross-examination of company witnesses has been completed. Objectors to the proposed increase now are giving their side of the case.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Forest City businessman has suggested that Congress authorize special tax benefits for farm operations to relieve farmers from an economic squeeze which is cutting into their income.

WASHINGTON (AP)—What was the reason behind former President Truman's spectacular firing of Gen. Douglas MacArthur in 1951? Truman says it was "openly defied" by Mac Arthur and that it amounted to going on an atomic World War II.

MacArthur calls it "vengeful reprisal" because the general sought to unmask a spy ring stealing this country's top-secret military plans.

And so the continuing Truman-Mac Arthur controversy, involving the whole range of Far East strategy, goes into a new round with publication in Life magazine of a new installment of Truman's memoirs and a blistering 5,000-word reply by the five-star general.

Mac Arthur says Truman's account of the dismissal is "a labyrinth of fancy and fiction."

Says Truman: Mac Arthur was a great soldier but he wouldn't obey orders, he was willing to risk all-out war, and so: just as President Lincoln fired Gen. George McClellan in Civil War days, "Mac Arthur left me no choice—I could no longer tolerate his insubordination."

New Blizzard Theatens West Texas Tonight

PLAINVIEW, Tex. (AP)—Snow quit falling before dawn today in the blizzard troubled Texas Panhandle and plains but a new storm shaped up for night or to tomorrow.

Area highways were reopened today after 40 mile an hour winds whipped old snow into huge drifts yesterday that stalled trains and busses and closed U. S. 66, transcontinental highway.

Only light snow was predicted for the area today but forecasts called for "locally moderate to heavy" snowfall tonight and to tomorrow to add to the misery still left from last week's record-breaking snow.

Amarillo schools closed today after an attempt to reopen yesterday produced terrific traffic jams because of streets being only partly open.

The Fort Worth & Denver Railroad said it hoped sometime today to free two trains struck in snow banks.

Little if any thawing was expected today in the Panhandle. National Guard trucks still patrolled the streets and highways in this immediate area. Yesterday a school bus with 24 children became stuck 12 miles north of here, was freed by a National Guard truck, and then became stuck again.

Senators to Study Plan for Immigration

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's proposals for immigration law changes that could double the number of quota immigrants faced today cautious scrutiny by an election-year Congress.

There was reluctance to predict the outcome.

Without waiting to return to Washington from a Far Eastern trip, Rep. Walter (D-Pa.), co-author of the present immigration law, denounced Eisenhower's recommendations.

Walter is chairman of the Judiciary subcommittee on immigration which will have the first official look at the proposals in the House.

Sen. Watkins of Utah, senior Republican on the Senate Immigration subcommittee, introduced bills to carry out the recommendations, but without flatly endorsing them. He asked for "sincere and fair consideration."

Some members of Congress spoke up for Eisenhower's recommendations; others criticized them on the ground they would not make fundamental changes in the existing McCarran-Walter Act.

Abandoning of Nashville Bus Is Again Asked

Notice was served today on the affected towns and cities that Missouri Pacific Transportation Co. will ask the Arkansas Public Service Commission for permission to discontinue bus service between Hope and Nashville effective February 15.

Mayor H. M. Olsen received the notice in today's mail for Hope, and the notice advised that copies had been sent to postmasters and mayors of the following places: Hope, Nashville, Washington and Ozark.

Mayor Olsen said at noon that the City of Hope is sending a letter to the PSC asking for a public hearing on the abandonment proposal and that the bus company be required to maintain service in the meantime.

The mayor said he is getting in touch at once with officials in Nashville, Washington and Ozark looking to the formation of a united front against "the threatened loss of bus service."

Also, Mr. Olsen said, the question of possible competition by passengers by unlicensed buses operating between Hope and Nashville will be looked into at once. This question came up a year ago when Missouri Pacific Transportation Co. made its original plea for abandonment of the Hope-Nashville bus, and at a public hearing in Little Rock representatives of all communities along the route pledged that illicit passenger-carrying for hire by school buses would be stopped.

At the year-ago hearing the Missouri Pacific Transportation Co. reversed its position, and it would continue service. Reports are current here that school buses after a brief suspension of the practice are now carrying passengers into Hope and Nashville in the past—and this will be joined into by the various communities in preparing their case for the Little Rock hearing.

The bus schedule, which is being threatened consists of two round trips daily between the county seats of Hempstead and Howard and is the only public transportation facility now connecting them. One argument used by Hope and Nashville in the successful fight a year ago was that they offered no objection to the earlier discontinuance of passenger train service.

Siberian Cold Leaves 20 Dead in Europe

LONDON (AP)—A bitter new Siberian cold wave swept over Europe today, raising the 10-day weather death toll to more than 200.

icy east winds spread snow and peril over Greece and Turkey. Italy ordered police and troops into a grim fight to save scores of snowbound villages.

Central Sweden reported its lowest temperature of the 20th century—33 below at Falun. Stockholm's St. Stephen's Church gave sanctuary to 160 homeless.

Britain and France, only just thawed out from last week's freeze—up, braced for new intense cold.

Turkey counted 12 dead in the worst blizzards since 1943. Army trucks battled to reach isolated towns and villages in the Thrace region, where food was running short.

Greece had at least 14 dead. Greek and American planes roared gunnery the mountains dropping food to desperate villagers.

Already 35 Italians were known dead. More were feared freezing to death in isolated hamlets and on snowed-up roads.

Seventeen trailer trucks loaded with U. S. Army food and clothing rumbled southward from Leghorn for the aid of Italian storm victims.

Okays Ballot Title and Petition Form

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansans seeking to repeal the state poll tax and boost workmen's compensation benefits needed only the required number of voters' signatures on petitions to get their proposals to the next general election ballot.

Atty. Gen. Tom Gentry yesterday approved the ballot titles and petition forms of both measures. His decision cleared the way for proponents to begin circulating the petitions.

Repeal of the $1 poll tax would be an amendment to the state constitution, and thus would require signatures of 33,513 voters. The other proposal would be an initiated act, and would need only 26,810 signers.

Former Gov. Sid McMath submitted both measures to Gentry. "The workmen's compensation act would increase maximum benefits from $9,000 to $12,500, and extend the maximum period of payments from 25 to 35 weeks."

There is a small six-man group in Hope called the Red Snapper club which is unique in many ways. . . for instance there are no rules or by-laws except if there is business, don't bring it up, the boys simply don't want to be bothered. . . if the club has a rule it could only concern what meal is served and believe me the group has had some pretty fair lunches. . . in the past year the club has had such choice meals as red snapper, catfish, bream, bass, crappie, frog legs, venison, goat, barbecued coon, quail, pheasants, wild duck, squirrels, doves and some of the members will almost swear that armadillo and skunk have been served. . . anyway that club eats pretty high on the hog about three times a month.

A local independent basketball team will play the Ouachita College Redshirts tonight at 8 o'clock in the school gymnasium. . . there will be no admission charge.

Bishop Martin. Speaker at the morning service Sunday at First Methodist Church will be Bishop Paul E. Martin, head of the Arkansas-Louisiana area of the South Central Jurisdiction of Methodist Churches in America. Bishop Martin will speak at 11 a. m. on "The Secret of True Greatness." This service will start a "Week of Dedication" program in all Methodist churches. The service will be broadcast.

Good Meat Prices This Weekend

By The Associated Press
You'll find a good selection of meats at special prices in your food markets this weekend, but pork appears to offer more value for your money.

Pork prices, which increased sharply at wholesale recently, have fallen again. Many stores are cutting prices. A large chain is shaving four to six cents a pound off pork chops.

Lamb prices don't show any major price change this week, but a number of stores will feature legs of lamb and lamb chops.

There will be special prices here and there on such beef items as prime ribs and sirloin and round steaks. Pot roast will be featured widely.

Stevenson's Backers to File a Slate

By OSEPH D. KAMIN

CONCORD, N.H. (U) — Supporters of Adlai Stevenson prepared to file a politically powerful 12-member slate of delegate candidates today to challenge Sen. Kefauver (D-Ten) in New Hampshire's first-in-the-nation presidential primary.

Their action assured an initial test of strength between Kefauver, trying to repeat his 1952 New Hampshire primary victory, and Stevenson, who has rejected the Tennessee's challenge for a show-down fight in the preference poll phase of this state's two-extended March 13 primary.

In one phase of the primary, the voters express preference for a candidate himself. In the other, they choose delegates, either pledged or favorable to a candidate.

no slate backing Stevenson, 1952 Democratic presidential candidate, is running as favorable to him. In that category they do not need his consent, as they would if they were running as pledged candidates.

FOR HATCHING

TOKYO (U) — The Japanese Farmers Rehabilitation association is hatching 150 dozen chicken eggs, donated by a California organization, on an isolated farm this year to make sure they don't meet the fate of a similar shipment last year.

The last shipment of 130 dozen eggs was hardly fit for hatching officials got through with them. After strict Japanese quarantine officials got through with them. They had them boiled.

impressable populace will refrain from leaping to follow his example. Canned groceries are high enough already, and if 166 million Americans tried to stockpile a week's supply all at once sardines might cost more than caviar.

There would be a terrible shortage of can openers, too, for most houses usually have only one.

But the biggest objection to everyone building a survival kit and turning his automobile into a portable bomb shelter is that it is a step back toward fear, a step away from hope.

Only a few days ago another expert told a congressional subcommittee that a single H-bomb could destroy a metropolitan area and contaminate 100,000 square miles with radioactive fallout.

In the face of such utter devastation of what real value are automobiles stocked with groceries? Of what avail are mountain hideaways of concrete caverns in the back yard?

The true peril of the awesomely destructive potential of atomic attack rises above the problem of individual safety measures.

It is a collective problem: The fate of civilized mankind, not the fate of the civilized individual, is the all-important stake. The answer must be a world answer.

Ike Believes He Will Know by March 1

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower said today he thinks he should have enough information by March 1 to decide whether to seek re-election.

Eisenhower strongly indicated at a news conference that an announcement of his decision will come shortly after that date if he actually does have at that time the information he feels he needs.

With a smile and some times a hearty chuckle, the President parried all questions seeking to find out what he thinks his decision may be.

He did say he probably will give his answer to the big question at a news conference.

He said he probably will want to for if we have learned anything in this generation, we have learned that there can be no final individual security in an insecure world.

The best survival kit in the troubled atomic age can be carried about easily by anyone in his pocket, it doesn't require a can opener, and it will sustain you longer than a basement full of groceries.

As a matter of fact, it fits readily into the heart, and has for 2,000 years. It is the "Sermon on the Mount."

make a long explanation of his decision, and that this explanation quite likely will be given elsewhere than at a news conference. This seemed to indicate the possibility of his making a nationwide TV and radio broadcast, although Eisenhower did not elaborate on this statement.

Also in the political field, Eisenhower said he would have no objection to Chief Justice Earl Warren's running for President on the Republican ticket, if he, Eisenhower, decides against running again.

The President went on to say, however, he doubts very much that it would be within his sphere to ask Warren to run.

BEER HAS A $15,661,446 PAYROLL In Arkansas

Hundreds of our communities are working to get more industries and bigger local payrolls. Yet for many years the legal beer industry in Arkansas has had an annual payroll of more than $15 million. These small, independent businessmen and their employees spend most of their pay with their local merchants. Here, too, the beer industry is contributing to the prosperity of our state.

This is the effect of quick-acting nitrate nitrogen (right). The crop was side-dressed with Chilean Soda-nitrogen 100 per cent nitrate. At left—no nitrate nitrogen side-dressing.

CHILEAN NITRATE—WORLD'S ONLY NATURAL NITRATE

Whatever the crop—corn, cotton, tobacco, pastures, small grains, fruits, vegetables—Chilean Soda top-dressings and side-dressings give the best results, lowest costs, largest net profits.

Natural Chilean works fast. Corn responds bountifully at rates up to 500 pounds per acre or more, 40 to 50 days after planting. The nitrogen in Chilean is 100 per cent fast-acting nitrate—available at the critical stage of crop development.

Natural Chilean boosts yields. On cotton, side-dressings of 500 pounds or more, 35 to 40 days after planting, produce heavy, early-maturing plants. On pastures, too, it's a more efficient summer fertilizer than ammonia.

Natural Chilean contains sodium. Ammonia nitrogen is acid-forming and must be changed to the nitrate form in the soil, but every ton of Chilean contains sodium equivalent to 650 pounds of commercial limestone for destroying soil acidity.

Natural Chilean benefits crop and soil. It corrects acidity, improves potash, phosphate, calcium, magnesium and minor element availabilities. Chilean is one of the most efficient and economical nitrogen fertilizers for side-dressing summer crops. Ask for Bulldog Soda. Look for the Bulldog on the bag.

But even that isn't the whole story—not by a long shot.

Folks are buying Buicks in record numbers because they find in those big beauties a lot more automobile for the money.

They find here more styling freshness and distinction—more snap and ginger and power thrill—more comfort and luxury—more ride stability and steadiness—and more structural solidity and pure automobile than the same money buys elsewhere.

Como Show Is Giving Gleason Some Trouble

BY CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Almost any day now we'll probably hear officially that Jackie Gleason's Honey-mooners is moving back from 8:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. Eastern time Saturday evenings on CBS-TV opposite Perry Como on NBC-TV. Como, as widely publicized, has moved ahead of Gleason in the viewer ratings.

Stage Show the Gleason-owned program which has been in the 6 p.m. spot on CBS-TV, will come on at 8:30 p.m. Two for the Money, the Herb Shriner quiz show currently appearing on CBS-TV at 9 p.m. Saturdays, probably will move into another week-night spot. Into that Saturday evening slot will come a new filmed comedy series, Joe and Mabel, a program that went back to the shop for further tinkering last summer.

If pressed for official confirmation of this, all parties involved probably would deny it. But that's what I see in the crystal ball as happening.

As long ago as last April when Gleason was riding near the top of the viewer ratings he was asking CBS for the 8 p.m. slot this season. But it didn't turn out that way. For one thing, the sponsor of Two for the Money had an agreement that the program was to follow Gleason. Now Shriner has signed a five-year contract with CBS for a weekly hour variety show to begin late next fall. That means that Two for the Money, which incidentally has good rat-

CHAPTER XXII

The sheriff drove back sullenly and didn't speak until we'd reached his office and were seated at his desk. Then he said petulantly, "I ain't in the mood for any more rummaging. Pay me what you owe me."

I laid a dollar and a dime on the desk. He pocketed it, and then took a ring of keys from the top of the desk, unlocked a drawer, and leaned down, grunting. He came up with something in his closed hand. "There she is," he said, and opened his hand, revealing a small gray lead pellet.

"That's the slug Doc Jarrett dug out of Alice. All we gotta do is find the rifle that fired it and we got Alice's killer."

I looked at the little misshapen lump, a tiny chunk of lead that carried death, and I thought of another chunk, trifle larger, that had imbedded itself in the front seat of my car. "Take good care of it, Sheriff," I said.

"I will," he said impatiently. "Keep it locked up right here."

He dropped the bullet back into the desk drawer.

He held the cigar stub delicately between two fingers, puffed slowly, and regarded me silently for a moment. Then he said, "You're tough, but I'm tougher, because I've been around a lot longer and there's not much I ain't seen. This business about Alice is strictly my problem—but I could use you, if you'd cooperate."

"How?"

"Tell me the real reason you're interested in Alice and what happened to her."

"I told you. I wanted her permission to do the autopsy on her husband."

"You claim you got that, not that it's legal. Why mess around now?"

"I was shot at, twice. I think it connects with Alice Osborn's death."

"What else?" he asked softly.

For an instant I found it difficult to meet his narrow gaze, but I did, and I said, "I think maybe it's my fault that Alice Osborn was killed. I feel I owe her something."

He waved the cigar stub impatiently. "So you're just a knight in what the poets call shiny armor, is that it? I think your tin suit is rusty. I think you got other reasons."

"Maybe."

"All right. We'll leave it like that. If somebody killed Alice, I want to catch the villain as bad as you do. Ill let you work with me—if we can make a deal."

"What kind of a deal?"

"You just forget Frank Osborn's autopsy."

"That's Tuesday," I said, "and we're going to do it. Are we pals until then?"

"It depends."

It was almost 6 when I entered the Blue Ridge Hotel. There was no mail for me at the desk, and I had a lonely dinner. At 8:30, when it was dark and the city lights probed the purplish-black sky, I returned to my silent room, put on pajamas and lay on the bed.

I picked up a book and tried to read. After Chapter Four, I laid it aside, closed my eyes and presently I slept.

A shrill jangling awoke me. I blinked in the brightness and wondered what had happened to the night. My bedside light glowed with a feeble yellowness against the sun at the window I brought ings, is in for a change. Sponsor and network must be approaching some sort of understanding.

Gleason has been doing a lot of several million dollars worth of publicity in the newspapers. Yelling is always confusing and rather meaningless. The crux of the matter is Perry Como. Both Gleason and CBS feel they have to do something about him. Whatever their family differences they're united under the banner of "Beat Como."

Let's always view television ratings skeptically. But even the most skeptical agree that Gleason's audience has slipped badly. Can he recapture it simply by moving his time back half an hour? I don't think so.

Off and on, as the weeks pass, I continue to watch The Honey-mooners. It's a cast of superb actors, paced off a great comedian, almost always working from excellent scripts. Then what troubles me—and possibly many like me?

I'm simply tired of the formula of Ralph, the bus driver, and Alice, his long-suffering wife, fighting it out on that same bleak apartment set. I long for the old free-wheeling days of Reggie van Gleason and the wonderful variety of characters and situations this man Gleason can play.

Adlai Ends Talks in California

By NORMAN BELL

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—An expression of confidence in victory and a promise to leave "agility in tottering on the brink of war" to Republicans ended Adlai Stevenson's eight-day California campaign swing last night.

"I am confident," he said in response to a news conference question as to how he felt about his June 5 Democratic presidential primary contest in California with Tennessee's Sen. Estes Kefauver.

The reference to the "brink of war" statement attributed to Secretary of State Dulles in a magazine article was made by Stevenson in a brief public talk that concluded the campaign.

revolver, checked to make certain that the cylinder was full and that the safety was on, and placed it muzzle down in the inside pocket of my coat. Since working for the Commission I'd gotten out of the habit of carrying it, but its weight beneath my arm was familiar and comforting. I have never used a shoulder holster. If you needed a gun, it didn't matter much how you carried it; a fast draw was no

Harrison Gets Junior B Meet

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Class B Junior Boys Basketball tournament has been awarded to Harrison on a bid $500.

The offer was the only one made to the Arkansas Athletic Association. Other state tournaments were awarded last week. At that time, no bids were received on the Class B junior meet.

The tournament is scheduled Feb. 22-25.

Plenty of Cage Candidates for All-American

By ED WILKS
Of The Associated Press

It's that time of the year again. Balloting for the All America basketball team is under way. The post season tournament committees are on the prowl — and both team and individual performances are hitting high gear.

The likes of West Virginia's Hot Rod Hundley, Holy Cross' Tom Heinsohn and Marquette's Terry Rand went all out last night while Xavier of Ohio up and swatted Cincinnati 79-72 in overtime.

Temple, trying to forest its one defeat, walloped Bucknell 88-50 and unbeat St. Francis of Brooklyn, with an NIT invitation in hand but perhaps angling for a NCAA at-large berth, ran its string to 16 straight by beating Bridgeport (Conn.) 84-77.

Hundley kept the Mountaineers rolling 76-73 for their first victory at Penn State since 1949. He canned 25 points. His five quick baskets early in the second half overhauled a 46-41 Penn State lead.

Heinsohn, another All America candidate, scored 30 points, snared 21 rebounds and got 13 assists as Holy Cross ripped Syracuse 100-85. It was the 11th straight victory for the Crusaders, who'd like to wind up in the NIT again.

Rand had himself quite a night as Marquette toppled Michigan State 90-81 in overtime. He over shadowed Julius McCoy's 31-point bag for Michigan State while scoring 24 in a second half rally and 12 in the overtime.

Xavier made its biggest bid for the NIT in upsetting the 20th-ranked Bear Cats. They racked up five quick points in the first 2 1/2 minutes of the overtime to do it.

Hal Lear and Guy Rodgers, two other All America hopefuls, combined for 37 points as each played only about 28 minutes while Temple upped its mark to 16-1. Lear was high with 22.

St. Francis, which stands with top-ranked San Francisco as the only two major unbeaten left, got an unexpected scare at Bridgeport and had to resort to a 5-minute freeze to stay pure. Bridgeport trailed 49-30 at the half, then came alive.

Elsewhere, Duquesne, an NIT entry, defeated Carnegie Tech 69-59 although All America candidate St. George had only 19 points. Villanova pulled away in the last 8 minutes to beat Penn 89-74. Seton Hall, another NIT entry, outscored Iowa 28-4 in the last 5 minutes of the first half and went on to win 105-87.

The Usher Board of Rising Star Baptist Church will present its Annual Usher Day program Sunday February 12 at 3 p. m. at the church.

All ushers of the city are invited along with the following churches: Charity Baptist Church, Texarkana, Mt. Zion C. M. E., BeeBee Memorial C. M. E., Lonoke Baptist Church, Garrett Chapel Baptist and Bethel A. M. E. Church.

A very interesting program has been planned for this occasion.

Club Makes Annual Report
The Christian Union Community Club held its regular meeting Monday night February 6, with eleven members present. Devotion was conducted by Rev. Fred Morrison. After a very interesting lesson, taught by Rev. Morrison, business of the evening was begun.

Financial report for 1955 is as follows: Expenses, $49.24; Given to sick, $36.50; money received, $114.45. Total amount treasury to date, $215.45.

Sandwiches and coffee were served, after which the meeting adjourned until February 20, 1956. Mrs. Snow A. Norwood, President, Mrs. Vertie Lee Joe, Secretary, Mrs. Mary Flonory, Reporter.

The New Hope Home Demonstration Club held its meeting February 7, at the home of Mrs. Lethia Lawson. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Martha Armstrong with the group singing "Climbing Jacob's Ladder." Scripture reading and prayer by the president. Roll Call — Each member responded by telling "What I do for burns in my family."

Five members and five visitors were present. We had a discussion "What Are The Best Ways To Reduce." We learned that eating the right food and not too much will help you to reduce. The discussion was enjoyed by the group. A demonstration "The Story of Weight" was given by our Home Demonstration Agent, Mrs. Maude B. Davis. It was enjoyed by all.

Then came time for recreation, so the group enjoyed ribbon and potted meat sandwiches, cake, cocoa, and candy served by the hostess. The meeting was held on Mrs. Lethia Lawson's birthday and she received many gifts. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mary G. Reggans. Mrs. Martha Armstrong, president.

'B' Boys Lick Fouke, Bobcats Home Friday

The Hope "B" team boys went over to Fouke last night and soundly whipped the winner of the Saratoga tournament 77 to 53 in a contest that saw four local lads get into the scoring.

Larry Bruce led the way for the busy "B" boys with 18 points. Jerry Franks ended the night with 17 while Tommy Polk and Jimmy May tossed in 15 each. The "B" boys will enter the county tournament tomorrow at Spring Hill.

Friday night the Bobcats will entertain Arkadelphia with the Junior teams of the two schools meeting in the preliminary contest. Earlier this season the Badgers defeated the Bobcats in a close one at Arkadelphia. So Hope will be out to avenge that defeat in what promises to be another close contest.

Howell Rates Moore No. One

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Giants will depend on Arkansas Henry Moore as their No. 1 ball carrier next football season.

Giants Coach Jim Lee Howell, who also is a former Arkansas football star, said yesterday the retirement of veteran fullback Ed Price leaves Moore as the team's leading ground threat. Price was injured last season, and has decided to quit, said Howell.

Moore, one of the University of Arkansas' all-time great fullbacks, was New York's second choice in the recent draft of collegiate talent by National Football League teams.

A swift 190-pounder with plenty of power, Moore twice was named to the All-Southwest Conference team.

McDermott Is Purchased by Yankees

By ACK HAND
NEW YORK (AP) — The Yankees have Maury McDermott, Washington has a "new look" and the rest of the American League has a new headache.

McDermott, the lanky lefty often mentioned in trade talk, finally came to New York yesterday in a seven-man swap that brought five young players to Washington.

With McDermott in the starting pitcher brigade with Whitey Ford, Tommy Byrne, Bob Turley, Don Larsen and Bob Grim, the Yankees present a formidable mound staff in defense of the American League pennant.

The deal was the Yankees' answer to the challenge presented in the major changes by Cleveland, Chicago, Boston and Detroit since the close of the 1955 season.

The Indians traded Larry Doby, their hard-hitting outfielder, to Chicago for shortstop Chico Carrasquel. The Red Sox acquired pitcher Bob Porterfield, first baseman Mickey Vernon, outfielder Tom Umphlett and pitcher Johnny Schmitz from Washington in November for five young men among them outfielder Karl Olson. Detroit picked up pitcher Virgil Trucks from Chicago for outfielder Bubba Phillips.

The Yankees gave up outfielder Dick Tettelbach, 26, a Yale grad who hit .309 at Denver in the American Association last season; Bob Wiesler, 25, a promising left-handed pitcher with an 0-2 record at New York; catcher Lou Barber, 26, who hit .265 at Toronto in the International League and infielder Herbie Plews, 26, a .302 batter at Denver. A fifth player will be shipped to Washington before April 1.

In addition to McDermott, who has been rumored as coming to New York all winter, the Yankees got shortstop Bob Kline for their Denver farm. Kline hit only .221 in 77 games at Washington.

The value of McDermott, 27, is reflected in his 3-2 record against Cleveland, the top contender, this season record of 10-10 and his batting average of .263, tops among American League pitchers.

While many American women make up their eyes to look slanted like Oriental women, many Japanese women submit to minor operations to eliminate the slanted look from their eyes.

State NAIA Playoff Plans Announced

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas' representative in the annual Kansas City tournament of the nation's top small college basketball teams will be chosen in a sudden-death playoff here next month.

Athletic Director John Tucker of Arkansas Tech yesterday announced that the state tournament will be held March 5-6 at the Little Rock High School field house.

The winner will go to the big tournament sponsored by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics. Last season, Arkansas Tech reached the finals in the NAIA.

Tucker said the first three finishers in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference race will automatically get berths in the state playoff. The other contender will be either the No. 4 AIC team or Arkansas State.

This virtually assures Arkansas State of a place, since the No. 4 team will have to whip the powerful Indians to get into the tournament. State generally is regarded as the best small college team in Arkansas.

The current leaders in the AIC are Southern State, Arkansas A&M, and Hendrix College. Arkansas Tech is fourth in a tight race for the title.
